Clubs Will Transform Quad Into Collegiate Fairgrounds

LEE WRIGHT
Reigns Over Fiesta

Fiesta Day will arrive tomorrow in all its splendor and mirth as clubs begin to transform the Quad area into a virtual fairgrounds replete with booths, contests and special attractions. Festivities will begin at 11 a.m. with a special free-hour assembly featuring Robert MacDonald's jazz band in the Monarch Bowl.

Members of advanced modern dance class will perform to "Dawn," an original jazz number by MacDonald.

Fiesta, starting at 2 p.m., will be open to community members and Monarchs.

During school hours, students may wear sportclothes, however, anyone not in western dress during Fiesta night will be thrown in jail, according to Ron Gordon, Inter-Organization Council chairman.

"A 25 cent fine will be imposed on all violators," Gordon said. The money collected will be donated to the Green and Gold Fund, he said.

Queen Sandy Kennedy and King Lee Wright, crowned at the Fiesta Dance, Saturday, will reign over the activities and help enforce the western theme.

A total of 1124 votes was cast for queen and king candidates. This was the largest poll turn out Valley has ever had.

Variety of Booths

A variety of club booths will host Fiesta activities. Alpha Mu Gamma will have a western dress booth; Behavioral Sciences Club, a fortune telling booth; Coronets will sell root beer floats; the Education Club will have a milk bottle throw; the French Club is selling french fries, petite fours, coffee and punch. They will also host an exposition of modern dancing and have a cigarette throw.

Plan To Sell Food

The German Club will sell knackwurst, potato salad, bread, pickles, coffee, lemonade, cherry and apple strudel. A tent will hold the International Club's exposition.

Pastries will fly in the Knights' pie throwing booth. Hamburgers and cokes add the American touch to Fiesta food at the Lettermen's booth.

Offer Games

For the athletically inclined, the Newman Club offers a dart throw, dime throw and is also selling panda bears. Ice cream cones will be sold by the Natural Science Club.

A white elephant sale will be held in the Patricians' booth. Sigma Alpha Phi, the music club, is converting the Lounge into a "beatnik" coffee house.

Marriage, for those so inclined, is being offered by Ski Lions. They will also sell "sno cones."

Latin flavor is being added by the Spanish Club. They will host a combo composed of students from Spanish classes. They will also sell tacos and coffee. A foreign sports car display and a Coke pitch is being offered by the Sports Car Club.

Books and magazines are being sold by the Writers' and English clubs.

Athenaeum Screens 'Paris,' Silent Films

"Paris, 1900," a documentary film of Paris, plus three old time short silent movies will be screened by the Athenaeum as a part of the foreign film series tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in the Men's Gym.

"Paris 1900" is a feature length silent movie with English narration by Monty Woolley and French songs sung by Claude Dauphine.

Sarah Bernhardt, Leo Tolstoy, Andre Gide and Maurice Chevier are among the French celebrities being seen in this award winning film.

Three three shorts include "One A.M.," "The Adventurer," and "Easy Street." They are all Charlie Chaplin silent pantomim comedies with musical scores and sound effects added.

Drama Tale Curtain Rises Wednesday

"Detective Story" starring Pete Moller as Detective McLeod and Sybil Colin as his wife today enters the final week of rehearsal. It is scheduled for premiere showing Wednesday.

It will show each night except Sunday, May 27-June 6, with curtain time at 8:15 p.m. Lew Weinstock is student director of the play. Tickets may be purchased for $1 at the box office, which will be open from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. daily and from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Monday and Thursday.

Written by Sidney Kingsley, "Detective Story" unfolds a series of smaller stories woven into one that affects the lives of many participants. The scene is set in the detective squad room of a New York City precinct police station.

The activities portrayed bring a pickpocket, burglar and an abortionist charged with murder into the squad room during a four-hour period, one day in August.

Plan Broadway Set

The Crown Players will present the three-act melodrama on a set which is the replica of the original Broadway set, according to Tom Schmidt, student technical director.

The cast of 30 is the second largest ever used in a play at Valley. It was exceeded in size only one time, by the 50-member cast of "Oedipus the King."

Other Parts Taken

Supporting players include Edward Brent as Lieutenant Monaghan and Tommy Thomas as Detective Brody.

Other parts are taken by Tina Isgro as Susan Carmichael, Mike Kuhn as Arthur Kindred, Jerry Ervin as Charlie the Burglar and Beatrice Blatchford as the shoplifter.

Voters To Elect Board Members

Three Los Angeles City Board of Education seats, two charter amendments and one proposition will go before Los Angeles voters Tuesday in a municipal election. Polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m.

Meeting in a runoff of last month's primary are Board candidates J. C. Chambers running against Robert Fenton Craig, Mrs. Lucy Baca against Charles R. Smoot, and Tom B. Carvey Jr. against Arthur F. Gardner.

Monarch Bulletins

The last day to drop classes is tomorrow, according to Robert Nassi, dean of admissions and guidance. Students dropping classes after this date will receive a final grade.

Charm Expert To Talk On 'What is a Woman?'

Miss Caroline Leonetti, charm and fashion authority, will make the final address of the season's Athenaeum lecture series Monday at 8 p.m. in the Men's Gym.

She is president and director of Caroline Leonetti, Ltd., a women's center and school of personal charm and poise. She will lecture on the subject, "What Is a Woman?"

Originally scheduled for Monday's program, Mrs. Mildred Younger, Republican national committeewoman and past candidate for the state Senate, will be unable to appear because of illness.

During the past 14 years Miss Leonetti has taught charm classes to teenagers, business girls, potential models, professional women and homemakers.

Miss Leonetti is department head of psychology of poise and personality development at Marymount College, West Los Angeles. She is director of "Charm Clinic," dedicated to furthering the prevention of juvenile delinquency of underprivileged teenagers in the east part of Los Angeles.

The speaker has received a special service award from the Federation of Youth Clubs, sponsored by the Probation Department of the City of Los Angeles, and works closely with the Deputy Auxiliary Police, a youth program sponsored by the police department.

Miss Leonetti maintains a weekly schedule consisting of as many as six public appearances, lectures or fashion shows presented before business employee groups, social clubs, charity organizations, teacher associations and conventions.

She has appeared for 12 consecutive years on Art Linkletter's "House Party" and is a mistress of ceremonies on her own "The Caroline Leonetti Show," a charm school of the air.

She is affiliated with the Assistance League, Hollywood Advertising Club, Radio and Television Women of Southern California, Better Business Bureau, Business and Professional Women and International Platform Association.

Admission to the lecture will be free to Valley students and to those holding donor memberships in the Athenaeum. A charge of 50 cents will be made to non-students and non-members. The public is invited.

1. Classes meeting daily, MW, WF, or four (4) days per week will follow the MWF schedule.

2. Classes meeting MTTh or TThF will follow the TTh schedule.

3. Classes meeting two consecutive hours one day a week and a single hour on a second day will follow the schedule for the hour which the class meets both days.

EXAMPLE: A class which meets at 9:00 TTh and 10:00 Th will follow the schedule for the 9:00 TTh classes.

4. Classes meeting only one (1) day a week will follow the MWF or TTh schedule according to the day on which the class meets. If these hours conflict with other scheduled examinations, students concerned will make individual arrangements with the one day weekly instructors.

5. Laboratory courses will observe the lecture hour schedule.

6. Two hours are scheduled for each examination. No course or student is exempt from the final examination.

7. Examinations will be held in the room in which the class was assigned for the semester.

8. There will be no changes in the times, dates, or places of the final examinations.

Circulate Fall Job Petitions

Twelve candidates have started petitions for fall student body offices as the deadline for candidates closes Monday. As of Tuesday only four prospective candidates had turned back petitions with the necessary 50 signatures to make them candidates.

Heading the list for Associated Student Body president, Alan Argabrite and Paul Coccainte have taken petitions.

Ron Gordon has returned a petition as the only candidate for ASB vice president and Merna Peterkin and Carl Urbano are the only hopefuls for the offices of ASB secretary and ASB treasurer.

John Prescott has turned in his petition for the commissioner of men's athletics, Tony Sydes for commissioner of activities, Yvonne Barber for commissioner of publicity, and Sharon Carter for commissioner of social affairs.

Edward Smith and Harvey Greenberg have both made bids for the AMS presidency, while Sue Garry has taken a petition for AWS presidency.

Dr. Warburton Notes JC Need for State Aid Funds

State aid will be a necessity if the future role of junior colleges is to meet its predicted expectations, according to Dr. T. Stanley Warburton, associate superintendent of higher education, during his first visit to Valley College Tuesday.

"There is a $30 million bill in the state legislature now. This is only a part of what we need, but it is a beginning," he said.

"Two years ago we almost were granted state funds, however, the bill did not pass."

Need More JC's

Dr. Warburton also predicted a need for more junior colleges in the Los Angeles area by 1975.

Junior colleges are becoming more and more important, not only in Los Angeles, but in communities throughout the United States, he said.

Equal importance is stressed on specific educational requirements of the two-year terminal student as well as the lower division requirements for students transferring to four-year colleges and universities, he said.

"Universities such as California and Stanford prefer junior college transfers," Dr. Warburton said.

JC Students Rate High

"We receive a yearly evaluation of junior college transfers and it has proven that these students are more than adequately equipped to do university work," Dr. Warburton said.

Dr. Warburton termed Valley's future plans and buildings as "very inspiring" during his tour of next semester's new facilities with Walter T. Coultas, Valley president and assistant superintendent of junior colleges.

Beta Phi To Entertain Prep Journalists Today

More than 75 students and advisers representing most of Valley high schools will visit Valley today at 3:30 p.m. to participate in the annual Journalism Day, said Kenneth Devol, head of Valley's journalism department.

Journalism Day is an event presented by Beta Phi Gamma, national organization designed to introduce journalism students to Valley and allow them to participate in writing and photography contests.

This year a new perpetual trophy will be awarded to the high school which submits the most outstanding individual journalism achievement, said Devol.

Following refreshments, students will begin the writing competition. They will compete in news, feature, editorial and sports writing. While students are engaged in writing, their advisers will confer with Dick Miller, assistant general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association regarding employment opportunities in the field.

At 5 p.m., news-editorial, sports and news-photography workshops will begin. Participating in the news-editorial workshop will be Bernard Peters, Valley Star editor, as moderator; Lorelli Calcagno, editor of the San Bernardino Valley State College Sunday and also working as a reporter for the Burbank Daily Review; Pete Grant, reporter for the Los Angeles Times; and Dick Tyler, Van Nuys News.

Sports workshop will include Frank Hall, sports editor of the Valley Star, moderating; Ralph Caldwell, Valley's basketball coach; Larry Levine, sports editor, Burbank Daily Review; Art Rubine, sports writer, Valley Times and Jerry Tune, past sports editor, Valley Star.

News-photography workshop will have M. G. Hutcherson, chief photographer for the Valley Star, acting as moderator; Dave Siddon, reporter-photographer, Valley Times; Helen Aragon, Larry Fennell, Milt Fries and Ed Weiss, Valley Star photographers. Miss Calcagno, Levine, Rubine, Siddon and Tyler all are former Valley College students.

Following the workshops, students may tour the art exhibit and at 6:45 p.m. have dinner. Chick Hearn, television and radio sportscaster, will speak. Walter T. Coultas, president of Valley College, will also speak on Valley's expansion.

Students To Elect Yell, Song Leaders

Ten candidates vying for yell and song leaders for the fall semester will participate in the nomination assembly next Thursday, according to Mrs. Tirzah Lundgren, physical education instructor.

The student body will then select four song leaders, all women, and three yell leaders, men or women in the election.

Chosen as candidates for yell leader in last Friday's tryouts were Beverly Herron and Maryon Vusich. Song leader candidates include Carole Minter, Madge Vukich, Anita Bachmann, Marjorie Tertzag, Muff Beery, Diana Potter, Sandy Kennedy and Stephanie Sorrel.

Students Win Water Safety Certificates

Twenty-seven students have received Water Safety Instruction certificates and 30 have been awarded the Instruction certificate as well as Senior Life-Saving certificates, according to Miss Helen Mindlin, swim class instructor.

This semester marks the first time these awards have been issued at Valley.

Before entering the class, students must be able to swim at least one mile. In addition to increasing swimming ability, students are trained as swim teachers and practice group instruction on each other.

May Be Instructors

Those passing the requirements necessary for Water Safety Instruction become accredited swim instructors. Receivers of the Life-Saving certificates are eligible for work as beach and city pool lifeguards.

Most of the students are Physical Education majors and include such athletes as Dick Murphy, two-year All-American winner in water polo.

Passed Both Tests

Students who have passed the life-saving final and have received both certificates are Ron Bach, Anita Bachman, Chuck Butler, Raymond Byers, Barbara Bilisnansky, Beverly Carter, Anglo Coralliss, Marilyn Drachlis, Carol Edmond, Howard Greene, Carolyn Haas, Luis Hernandez, Philip Hughes, Thomas Hunter, Wendy Livesay, Daniel Lott, Jenny Lytle, Carol Magid, Richard Murphy, Dave Nuttall, Pat Pruner, Mike Sterling, William Szabo, John Weger, Robert Zarit and David Ross.

Talkers To Air Smoking Topic In Quad Today

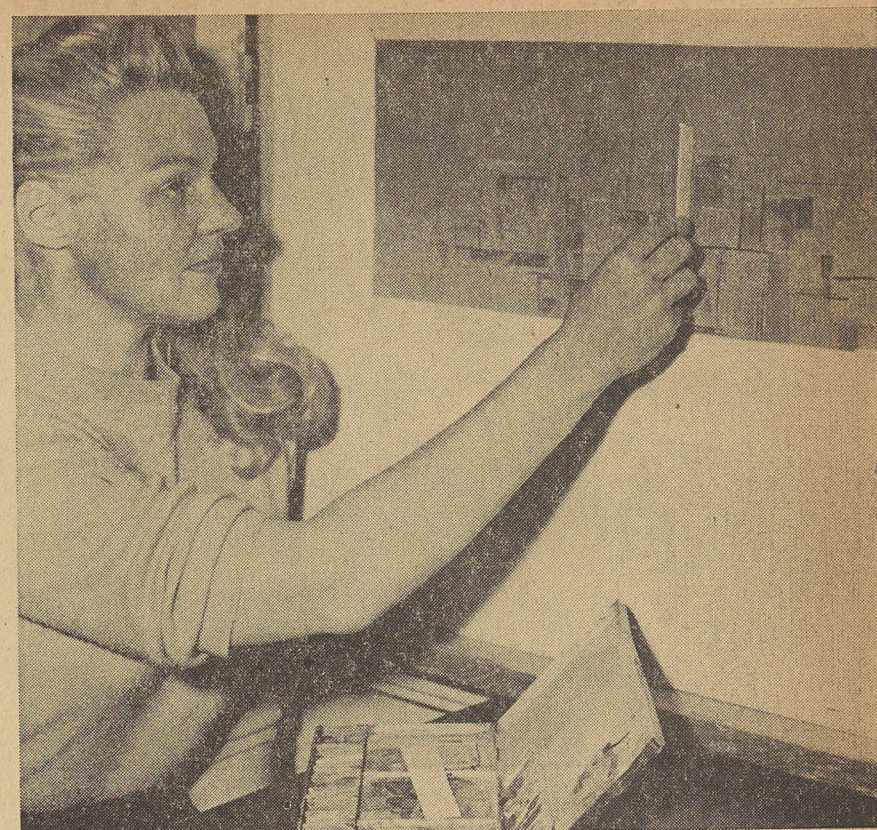

Smoking and cancer, lately proved to be related, will be aired at today's noon session of the Quad Wranglers.

Sandra Mahannah, Forensic Club member, will present opinions that were expressed in an editorial of the May 7th issue of the Valley Star.

The editorial stressed the harmful effects of smoking and the general gullibility of the consumer to advertising.

In preparation for next Thursday's Quad Wrangler debate, questions for candidates for next semester's offices may be deposited in the mail slot in Room 55A, said John Prescott, Forensic Club member.

The questions will be directed to the candidates by Gene Mahn, Associated Students president, added Prescott.

Health Talk To End Work Series Today

Ending the Occupational Exploration Series for the spring semester will be a program on careers in "all of the health fields" today, according to George Hale, biological science instructor.

The biology department sponsored program will be held in Room 68 at 11 a.m.

Guest speaker will be James English from Los Angeles College of Optometry.

Dr. Vierling Kersey, first president of Valley College, is now president of the Los Angeles College of Optometry. He left Valley College at the end of the 1955 spring term.

"The Occupational Exploration Series this semester has been even more of a success than ones in the past," said Mrs. Mary Bruick, counselor and coordinator of the Occupational Series.

Selling physical education programs to the public and struggling for recognition in academic circles are the two many problems faced by the physical education instructor today, said Glen Arnett, chairman of the physical education department at San Fernando State College at last Thursday's Occupational Exploration meeting.

He stressed the present need for a vigorous program of physical education.

promotion by referring to a bill now pending in the California Legislature that would eliminate compulsory physical education in California schools.

Statistics obtained from other states that have passed similar legislation in recent years indicate that 50 per cent of the affected students discontinue their physical education, said Arnett.

Lack of recognition in academic circles and acceptance as equals have long been thorny problems for the physical education teacher, said Arnett.

This prejudice still exists, despite the fact that the physical education instructor generally works more closely with students and frequently (as in the case of athletic teams) on terms of far greater intimacy than the instructors in any other field. Consequently, the potential influence of the physical education instructor is enormous, said Arnett.

Clubs Elect Officers

21 Linguists Join Honor Society

Alpha Mu Gamma, national foreign language honor society, initiated 21 members into the Valley chapter Saturday at a buffet supper, according to John Tatum, sponsor.

Twelve students were honored in Spanish, five in German and four in French. In order to qualify for membership in the society, a 3.7 average must be maintained in three or more semesters of a foreign language, Tatum said.

Also taken into the group as an honorary member was Gordon Gaffikin, western representative of TransCanada Airway, who spoke to members after the initiation ceremony.

Officers elected during the business meeting include Andrew Nowell, president; Warren Tamblin, vice president; Grace Downing, secretary; and Susan Bardwell, treasurer.

Students initiated for work in Spanish are Susan Bardwell, Robert Paul Behlendorf, John Browning, Lilian Fiori, Elizabeth Kluka, Harry Knott, Carol Krause, Barbara Minshew, May Ides Niesen, Paula Plath, Elizabeth Sharp and Carol Ze Brack.

German students are Stephen Chase, Grace Downing, Dean Paulwell, Emanuel Schweid and Warren Tamblin.

Those initiated for scholarship in French include Sheila Marcus, Geraldine Ross, Jack Salatch and Gail Urban.

Newmans Asked to Pierce's Luau Party

Valley's Newman Club has been invited to a Blue Lagoon Luau and dance Saturday, sponsored by Pierce College's Newman Club, according to John Zeman, publicity chairman.

The weekly business meeting is set for Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the St. Jane Francis School Hall. Charles Leyba, philosophy instructor at Immaculate Heart College in Hollywood, will be guest speaker. His topic is "The Educational Aspect of Christianity."

Internationals Visit UN Valley Chapter

Four members of the International Club will represent Valley College at an open meeting of the San Fernando Valley Chapter of the American Association for the United Nations tonight at 8 at the Church of the Chimes in Van Nuys.

Dr. Marvin Pursinger, professor of Asian History, San Fernando Valley State College, will speak on the American foreign policy.

Valley's representatives John Nazarian, Lebanon; Don Cumming, Canada; Abdul Latifi, Afghanistan; and Nathan Kvetny, Israel, will take part in a panel discussion following Pursinger's talk, according to Carole de Angelis, publicity chairman of the International Club.

Natural Scientists To Plan Park Trip

Members of the Natural Science Club will meet Tuesday at 3 p.m. in Room 70, according to Bill Gahret, publicity chairman. Topics of the meeting will include plans for a field trip to Sequoia National Park and a discussion of the trip taken to Mojave last week.

Engineering Honor Society Reorganized

Students in their second semester of engineering and who have an overall B average are eligible to join the newly reorganized Engineering Honor Society, according to David Ellis, publicity chairman.

Members must be enrolled in an engineering course this semester, said Ellis.

The next meeting of the engineers will be Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Room 61.

Officers of the club include Donald Boucher, president; and Robert Hime, secretary-treasurer. Sponsor is Andrew McFarlin.

Earth Scientists To See Cove Area

Saturday's field trip to Paradise Cove, west of Malibu, will be discussed at 11 a.m. today in room 10 in a meeting of the Earth Sciences Club, according to Angus MacDonald, president.

The Paradise Cove group, under the leadership of Maynard Nichols, geology instructor in the extended day school, will leave at 1 p.m. from the parking lot. They plan to return at 5 p.m.

Foilers Foiled by Olympic Foil

Mrs. Maxine Mitchell, four times national fencing champion representing the Burbank Fencing Salle, defeated Valley's Gloria Manley, 4-3, in the highlight match Monday. In the men's foils division, Valley fell to defeat at the hands of LACC, 5-3; Burbank Sabre, 5-3; and Burbank Epee, 5-4.

Mrs. Mitchell was the Pan American Games champion in 1956 and was a member of the United States Olympic teams of 1952 and 1956. Her close win over Manley shows up-coming strength in Valley's fencing teams. The Lion Team is coached by John Tatum, French instructor.

Although this is Valley's first year in fencing, other schools in the Metro Conference have followed Valley's lead and are planning to start fencing programs. El Camino and East Los Angeles Junior College have planned to introduce fencing, according to John Tatum, fencing coach.

Early in the season, Valley defeated Pomona 26-23.

In that meeting, Valley's Marty Katz held Pomona's Western Intercollegiate Conference Fencing Champion Tran Adamson to an even score, winning one bout, losing one and drawing one.

Later in the season they defeated every school in the two-year class at San Francisco. In the two day competition the Monarch team topped San Mateo 5-4, Napa JC 6-3, Santa Rosa 9-0 and San Francisco 6-3. The men's foilers won 35 individual bouts while losing 32.

In two men's sabre matches, Valley fell before California 6-4 and San Francisco State 8-1.

Tyra Aron (10-5) carried the women's foil team to a second in total points to San Francisco State as Valley won 29 bouts, losing 16. The only losses suffered by the women's team came by four-year schools. San Francisco State knocked off Valley's team 8-1, while Pomona College did likewise 6-3.

The women foilers defeated San Mateo JC 8-1, Napa 8-1, and San Francisco CC 8-1.

Point getters of the competition were Neva Hering (4-2), Carolyn Hass (6-0), Gloria Manley (5-4) and Mary Rockwell (4-5).

Girls Not Athletic

Incentive. Where is it lacking in the field of Women's Athletics? High schools have fairly good turnouts for Girls' Athletic Associations. Three months later some of these same girls who participated in high school sports arrive here at Valley College, but the Women's Athletic Association doesn't hear from them.

Miss Ruby Zuver, physical education instructor, said that one department thought that the title WAA might have scared some girls away so they changed it to College Recreational Association. This title was discarded too, and Coed sports was adopted. Still no response.

Letters were awarded to girls who compete in the intercollegiate sports that are offered here. This is enough to attract men into varsity competition. Apparently, females have more in mind than a monogram to sew on a sweater.

For the school year 1959-1960, 15 coed sportsdays have been scheduled. Nine sports are included in the lineup. Twelve schools are hosting the various events.

Dual meets can be scheduled with any school in any sport, according to Miss Zuver. This eliminates the problem of lack of competition and sports. Instructors from the women's physical education department are out of ideas of how to create interest in sports, according to Miss Helen Mindlin, head of the department.

Miss Mindlin continued to say that the girls have a different outlook when they are in college.

Rowe Named To All-Metro Baseball Team

Monarch outfielder Dick Rowe gained a berth on the All-Metropolitan Conference baseball team as a result of his .333 batting average.

Rowe was picked by selections taken from the composite of all-opponent teams of member conference schools.

Leading the Monarchs at the plate in batting, Rowe contributed 19 hits, 7 runs, 5 RBI's, 8 walks, 4 stolen bases, a double and a homerun.

Outfielder John Harmon of San Diego was named Player of the Year in the Metropolitan Conference, according to a release by Commissioner Cecil G. Zaun.

Pitcher-third baseman Ken Bondy led Valley in doubles with two, while Rowe and Shields tied in home runs with two apiece. Shields was also tops in RBI's with nine.

Composite team batting averages found Valley with a .226 percentage with 113 hits in 500 at bats.

Converted to a pitcher in mid-season because of a broken finger, Tom McKenzie had a 2-0 record, while Bondy finished with three wins against seven losses.

Although losing seven games, Bondy closed the season with a 2.96 ERA as opposed to McKenzie's 3.00 ERA.

Swimmers Shatter Records; Pick Eight All-American

Almost rewriting the entire record book, Valley's swimming team broke 13 of 14 school records during the 1959 season.

Led by Jerry Lipman, Monarch swimmers broke every school mark except Harry Trax' 100-yard backstroke record of 1:10.8, set in 1958.

Setting five individual records and three relay records, Jerry Lipman was named to the All-American Team for his clockings in the 220-yard and 440-yard freestyle, 100-yard and 200-yard butterfly, 200-yard individual medley and 400-yard medley relay.

Lipman set the Metropolitan Conference, Southern California, State and National Junior College record in the 200-yard butterfly with a best time of 2:10.2.

Other Valley All-Americans include Brent Lewis, 100-yard butterfly; Pete Kriz, 100-yard breaststroke; Ron Davidson, Howard Zentner, Dick Traub,

Long Beach Wins Carl White Trophy

Long Beach City College athletes have won the Carl White trophy for the current Metropolitan Conference athletic year.

Amassing a total of 63 1/2 points, the Vikings came out on top of Bakersfield and Santa Monica colleges, to cop the trophy.

Bakersfield College, with all its athletic laurels during the year, garnered 57 1/2 points, to take second place.

Santa Monica placed third with 53 points, followed by El Camino, Valley, East LA, San Diego and Harbor in that order. Valley scored 34 1/2 points.

Trophy points are awarded on the basis of team placement in the regularly scheduled sports in the Metropolitan Conference.

The Carl White trophy is named in honor of the donor who for many years has been an ardent follower of Metropolitan Conference athletics and is sports editor of the Santa Monica Outlook.

Shah Downed At Cal Match

Almost scoring the upset of the California JC tennis tournament, Jerry Shahbaghlian bowed 7-5, 6-4 to Jim McManus of Oakland, winner of the Ojai JC division last month and third seeded in this tournament.

Shahbaghlian and Jim Chandee almost scored another upset by extending the third seeded doubles team of Bill Luttrell-Gil Stone from LACC before losing 6-4, 7-5.

McManus, whose two-handed backhanded drives were the scourge of opponents at Ojai, was having his troubles with "The Shah's" passing shots.

Chris Crawford from Menlo JC, the Davis Cupper who beat Ashley Cooper when he was ranked as the number one amateur in the world, won the singles crown. He defeated Santa Monica's George Conway, 6-3, 6-0.

Crawford-Bruce Campbell won the doubles title by defeating McManus - Ken Stanley 6-4, 7-5.

Menlo won the team championship with 10 points followed by Santa Monica with seven, Oakland with six, LACC and Modesto with two and Fullerton, SFCC and Monterey with one each.

Glendale Hosts Track Finals

After taking third in the Metropolitan Conference meet at Bakersfield last week, Valley track men head to Glendale College tomorrow for the eighth annual Southern California JC track and field championships. Events start at 1:30 p.m.

Monarchs entered in the meet include Bob Wilson in the sprints, high jumper Roman Carter, miler Angelo Corallis and shot putter Gordon Martin.

The top four athletes in each event of last Saturday's Metro meet travel to Glendale.

A leap of 6 ft. 2 1/2 in. in the high jump netted Roman Carter Valley's only gold medal of the conference meet. Carter tied Grundy and Wilson, both of Harbor.

Lion sprint star Bob Wilson turned in two second places, both behind Jim Bates of East LA. In the century preliminaries, Wilson ran 9.7. In the final, he was clocked at 9.8. Bates won in 9.7. The furlong found Bates in a winning effort of 21.1. Wilson sped to a 21.5 for a second.

Angelo Corallis, Monarch miler, ran 4:28.8 for a fourth place. Gordon Martin also placed fourth, this time in the shot with a 46 ft. 10 1/4 in. put. Favored Wayne Farlow tripped in the 880 and didn't place while Ray Hall was out of the pole vault with a pulled muscle.

Bakersfield College added the 1959 crown to its list of four previous titles by amassing a total of 142 1/2 points. Long Beach put together 102 1/4 points to cop second place honors. Valley totaled 38 points for third spot.

Eight Metropolitan Conference meet records fell on the Renegade cinders, including the oldest, one on the books, the shot put, Jim Smith tossed the iron ball 53 ft. 2 in. The old mark of 53 ft. 1 in. was set in 1953 by Mason Benner of Santa Monica.

Bakersfield's Leland Sheppard set a new 880 standard, touring the half mile in 1:54.9. The former mark was 1:55 set last year by Dennis Hester of El Camino.

Bakersfield claimed the 120 high hurdle record of 14.2 set by Jerry Tarr. Renegade Neville Shaw cracked two records. Shaw raced to a 4:20.2 mile and a 9:36.9 two-mile. Both previous records were set in the 1958 meet.

Hank Visser set another record for Bakersfield as he broad jumped 24 ft. 11 1/2 in. The former standard was 24 ft. 3 1/2 in. set last year by Bill Johnson of Harbor.

Mickey Byers, Long Beach pole vault ace, sailed over the uprights at 14 ft. 2 1/2 in. to better the old Metro mark by a foot and a half.

The Viking relay team ran the final event in a record-shattering 3:17.2, smashing the 1958 time of 3:19.8 set by Bakersfield.

Headed by the Lion's squad will be Wendy Livesay with nine first places and one second thus far this season.

"The team is well balanced with good depth," said Wiley.
